Fund Snapshot

- Multi-asset class exposure across equities, fixed income and collective investments
- Globally diversified and flexible investment strategy with a growth bias
- Focus on developed capital markets
- No derivatives, gearing or hedging
- Long term investment view focused on high-quality, fundamentally sound businesses

Objective and Philosophy

The investment objective is to provide attractive risk-adjusted returns from a globally diversified portfolio of equity and fixed income investments, with a particular focus on developed capital markets. The Fund Manager has the flexibility to allocate capital across asset classes and follows a primarily bottom up investment strategy. The Fund Manager aims to invest in companies that are fundamentally sound and will therefore deliver favourable returns to investors over the long-term.

About Credo

Credo is a Wealth Management services business that has been in existence since 1998 and employs over 90 staff. The group has assets under custody in excess of £3.6bn (£1bn of which is under management) and has offices in the United Kingdom and South Africa. Credo is majority owned by senior management, many of whom have been with the group for more than ten years. The principles that form the cornerstones of our business are to provide our clients with personal service, focus on long-term success and to build relationships based on trust. This results in meaningful and lasting partnerships with both our Private Clients and our Financial Intermediary clients. Credo investment solutions include a range of Credo funds, Managed Portfolio Services as well as bespoke solutions.

Important Notice: This document has been issued and approved for the purposes of Section 21 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 by Credo Capital Limited, reg no. 3681529, (Credo) in its capacity as the investment manager of the Credo Growth Fund (the Fund) which is a sub-fund of Credo ICAV, an Irish Collective Asset-management Vehicle (ICAV) registered in the Republic of Ireland and regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland as an ICAV under the Irish Collective Asset-management Vehicles Act 2015. The Fund is recognised by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) as an Undertaking for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities and is also an approved foreign Collective Investment Scheme for purposes of the South African Collective Investment Schemes Control Act, 2002. Credo is authorised and regulated by the FCA (FRN: 192204) and is also an authorised financial services provider in South Africa (FSP no. 9757), with its registered office at 8-12 York Gate, 100 Marylebone Road, London, NW1 5DX, United Kingdom. The purpose of this document is to provide summary information regarding the Fund and its past performance as at the date stated in this document. Before deciding to invest in the Fund, potential investors should read the latest prospectus for the Credo ICAV and the supplement in respect of the Fund to note the important regulatory disclosures, risk warnings, restrictions and acknowledgements contained therein. Investment in the Fund is through the purchase of shares (Shares). The value of an investment in the Fund may go up as well as down and past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance; the value may also be affected by changes in exchange rates and tax rates. Investors may not receive, on redemption of their Shares, the original amount invested. This document does not constitute an investment advertisement, investment advice or an offer to transact business in the Shares in any jurisdiction. Investment in the Fund may not be suitable for all investors and investors should obtain advice from their financial adviser before proceeding with an investment. Credo makes no representations, gives no warranties as to the correctness, accuracy or completeness of information and assumes no liability or responsibility for any losses arising from errors or omissions in this document. Readers should also note that, in some or all respects, the regulatory regime applying in the Republic of Ireland (including any investor protection or compensation schemes) may well be different from that of their home jurisdiction. This document may not be reproduced or circulated without the prior written approval of Credo.
